

ring the stormy times in which he lived; be observed and written in golden characters on every true American heart.

J. LAWLER.—J. C. Calhoun:—The gifted son of South Carolina, than whom Rome, in her days of glory and pride never boasted a brighter intellect, a purer patriot, nor a more renowned statesman.

R. CHANDLER.—Patriotism:—The palladium of our country's honor and safety; it seeks not to pour its blood on the broad acres of Cuba, but to maintain the dignity of America and support her constitution inviolable.

G. BUCKMAN.—Ireland:—The home of Patriots, land of poets, orators and saints; all else forsake her, religion, as it has been, will ever be the support of her bleeding sons.

J. PORTMAN.—Napoleon Bonaparte:—Undoubtedly we must recognize a man of superior genius in the brave soldier who threw himself, covered by his standard alone in front of the thunders of Lodi. In the European, who, without calvary, dispersed at the foot of the pyramids, the most formidable horsemen in the universe; in that ardent captain, who, in a few hours overthrew Brunswick, the old Prussian Guards and the monarchy of Frederick. In the consummate general, who, with a handful of heroes, defended, inch by inch, the territory of that country which he was forced to abandon.

J. H. CECIL.—The President of St. Mary's:—Rejoicing at our joys, sorrowing at our misfortunes, the friend of God and virtue's firm defender. May his students always follow his kind directions.

NICK MAQUIRE.—President of St. Mary's College:—Stern and unflinching in the discharge of his duty; just as Aristides; yet mercy falls from his lips as the dew from heaven; Long may his name be remembered with heartfelt love by all the students of St. Mary's.

L. CHANDLER.—C. S. Hill:—The pride of his country and the ornament of his State; May his exalted talents raise him to that station his virtues so richly deserve.

J. JOYCE.—Rt. Rev. Bishop Spalding:—Worthy successor of his eminent predecessor, a star in literature and a bright ornament to religion. His native State feels proud to call him one of her noblest sons.

ALFRED CLARK.—Gen. Jackson:—The hero of New Orleans, who led his troops boldly and undaunted to the scene of action; May his name and heroism be forever fostered in the annals of his country.

J. McDermott.—President and Vice President of St. Mary's:—With parental solicitude and tenderness have they watched over us for the last year, adopting every means in their power to promote our comfort and happiness. Long may they labor in that vineyard of charity, for which their learning and virtue so eminently qualify them.

WM. BACCHUS.—Millard Fillmore:—Just and equitable, making the Constitution his guide and the good of his country his highest object.

WILLIAM HEFFERNAN.—Superiors of St. Mary's:—Kind as the tenderest parents, admonishing kindly, punishing mildly; May they long live to be the students' friend, and may their last days be crowned with peace and prosperity.

F. SCHNITZ.—Winfield Scott:—May the bright example set by this military patriot be the point of emulation for America's brave sons, and feel the warm channel of love and swell at the sound of the magic words: Union, Liberty and Patriotism.

JOHN T. McLOUGHLIN.—Gov. Johnson, of Tennessee:—Raised by the unanimous voice of a free and enlightened people to the topmost summit of honor in the gift of the Commonwealth; his whole life is a beautiful example of the triumph of virtue and genius over the apparently insurmountable obstacles which a cold-hearted world is ever ready to throw in their way.

J. S. THOMPSON.—Franklin Pierce:—The faithful patriot and firm supporter of our rights; Long may he continue to be our bulwark in war and our bright ornament in peace.

WILLIAM E. MATTINGLY.—Gen. Taylor:—May he long be remembered for his hard struggles in the cause of his country.

D. DUNS.—Winfield Scott:—May his glorious achievements in Mexico be ever held in memory, for his gallant deeds at "Lundy's Lane" can never be forgotten.

J. ADAMS.—Liberty:—The boon for which Bunker Hill was stained with the choicest blood. The healing consolation that supported the desponding patriots at Valley Forge; May Heaven spread it over the whole world and preserve our Union eternally.

SAMUEL MARLY.—Of Aaron Burr—what have you done? You've shot great General Hamilton; You've shot behind a bunch of thistles; And shot him dead with two horse pistols.

ALBERT ELDER.—Texas:—Her extended prairies are the finest scenery in the Union, and battlefields have drunk the choicest blood. Her Alamo will distinguish her as long as the annals of Davy Crockett will be entertaining to mankind.

T. ANDERSON.—Liberty:—May this blessing of mankind for which our patriots forefathers fought and bled, ever spread its genial influence over the fair and promising land of Kentucky.

A. D. BARROW.—Lafayette:—Ungenerous must the heart of that American be, which beats not with love at the mention of this noble chieftain, who stood by our country in the hour of her peril, and fought and bled in the holy cause.

C. P. HIXMAN.—Pope Pius IX:—His learning his piety and his zeal in the cause of religion and humanity, all proclaim him to be "the most interesting man on the face of the earth."

ANGUSTO FENO.—Rt. Rev. Bishop Spalding:—Learning is his ornament, Virtue is his protection; May he long live as a bright example for his diocese, and may life eternal be his recompense.

J. BYRNES.—Henry Clay:—The incorruptible patriot who stood by his country in the dark hour of her trial, regardless of slander or hatred; May his name be forever cherished as one of the truest of America's sons.

The Richmond Messenger has been bragging about stalks of clover which grew in that neck of woods 4 feet high. Whereupon, the Danville Tribune, takes the conceit out of him, by saying that he has specimens in his office over six feet.

New we, away down here in the "Dog Fennel" country, can't presume to compete with the rich "Blue Grass region." But just hold down your ear a minit, friend ZIMMERMAN, and we will whisper very low that we can beat that. Send them out in the clover field again, and tell them to get a longer straw. Mr. John Berry of this county has a large field of clover; which is called pretty fair, in this region. In passing by it, one day last week he plucked up a couple of straws and sent them to us; but the longest one got broke and was thrown aside, and we received only the short one. The one we did receive lacked but an inch and a half of six feet; and the other was fully nine inches longer! This will do pretty well considering there was no picking, you must admit.

During the middle part of May, we are informed that a son of Mr. Mann, residing about 12 miles from this place, was killed by lightning. It appears that he was plowing in the field and his little sister was dropping corn, when a shower came up and they, together with the horse took shelter under a large tree by the fence. They both leant against the tree, and the horse stood by the boy. The lightning struck and passed down the tree; throwing the girl several feet from where she stood, rendering her completely insensible, and killed the boy and horse. The horse in his dying struggles brayed and lacerated the poor little girl's head shockingly. She, however, revived sufficiently to crawl to the house, a distance of two or three hundred yards; and she finally recovered entirely.

Is Towns.—We had the pleasure, last week, of shaking hands with P. M. HATCH, one of the energetic editors and proprietors of the Baton Rouge Democratic Advocate. It is so seldom that we ever see a real live editor in this out-of-the-way place, that it does us good whenever we receive one of their "angel's visits." Mr. H. is on a Northern trip of pleasure. Good luck, a pleasant time and a safe return to him.

We are glad to be able to state that the subscription for the railroad is fast approximating a close. Some four or five thousand dollars more, and the sum demanded of us will have been raised. There is now no shadow of doubt, but that this sum can and will be raised. Those gentlemen who have been exerting every nerve in the good cause, and who have spared neither trouble nor expense, will not now let it go by default, when it is so near to a consummation.

We do think that the people of this county, owe much to Messrs. Ben. Spalding, L. A. Spalding, Thos. Jackson; and several other gentlemen of this county; and Drs. R. C. Palmer and John Jackson and others of Washington, for their untiring and unconquerable zeal in this truly great enterprise. For, had it not been for them the entire thing would have signally failed. But to them there was "no such word as fail!" and when the darkest hour loomed up like a threatening cloud; then did they "spring to their work" with an alacrity and energy only equaled by sailors in a storm. Again we repeat, we owe them much, and although they may be more benefited by the final completion of the work, than many individuals, still, we feel so thoroughly convinced that the benefits will be so universally felt, that it would be the height of ingratitude, not to thank to the individuals who were instrumental in bringing about "a consummation so devoutly to be wished." The above especially designated gentlemen, are by no means the only ones to whom the meed of praise should be awarded, there are others, who have proved themselves "working members." We make especial mention of their names, because their action have come more especially under our eye. The men who have subscribed liberally, according to their means, merit, also, the thanks of all friends to the railroad. We intend, if permitted, to publish, in the Post, a list of the subscribers together with the amount of their subscription to the Railroad, so that every one may know the amount of liberality displayed by each individual. If this proposition meets with the approbation of those concerned, all we ask of them is to have an accurately and plainly written list drawn from the books, and handed in to us. It shall not cost one cent.

There seems to be some doubts still in existence, as to the final construction of the road even after the requisite amount has been raised. Now, we do not harbor a single doubt on the subject. Nothing has transpired so far, to warrant the slightest suspicion, but that the Railroad Company would fulfil their every promise. It is true that things did look a little squally at head quarters for a while, but as it turned out, it was decidedly advancing our interests all the while; for the whole cry was, "on with the Louisville and Road, at least as far as the junction with the Lebanon branch." The fact is, the people of Louisville are becoming alive to the importance of having a direct and speedy communication with this, the central portion of Kentucky, and the quicker such a communication is had the more it would redound to their benefit.

FAMILY POISONED.—On Wednesday morning last, while after breakfast, four members of the family of Mr. J. H. BONDERS, residing in Bardstown, were taken suddenly sick. They were his wife, two sons, 5 and 7 years of age and his sister. They were poisoned by something that had been put in the coffee they drank for breakfast on that morning. Mr. B. escaped from the fact that he never used coffee. A negro girl, a servant in the family has confessed that she put some kind of a poisonous root or herb into the coffee pot to clear the coffee, and that it was given to her by a black man. All of the persons poisoned have recovered, owing to prompt medical treatment. The girl implicates several others in this hellish operation.

The following communication was handed to us some weeks since, but having become misplaced, was not inserted at the time, we accidentally came across it, last week, so here it is. We would, however, premise, by saying, that if it causes any fighting, that we are not the one to strike.

Too Good to Keep.—A gentleman of my acquaintance, went, on the 1st day of April last, to a country store to get a jug of whiskey. After getting his jug filled, with the "over joyful," he put it away snugly in his wallet and stepped into the family room to warm. While he was in there, the clerk and other young men emptied the whiskey out and filled the jug with water and put it back in the wallet, and let him go off home, merrily singing this same old tune:

That Hon and Shug
Both love the jug,
Paul, Kit, Bob and Joe,
All love good whiskey O'

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

New York, July 6th.

The Washington, from Bremen, is below Halifax.

The America arrived with dates to the 24th.

News was received that the Turks had beaten the Russians, forcing them to retreat across the Danube, and to raise the siege of Silistria.

The Turks on the 15th sailed out from Silistria and attacked the Russians in trenches; a severe battle took place, ending in the total discomfiture of the Russians, who were pursued by the Turks and fled across the Danube and destroyed the Russian siege works. It is considered this victory will change the face of the campaign. A conspiracy to assassinate Napoleon was discovered in the south of France; a hundred and fifty arrests were made.

The papers announce on the 17th ult., that Paskievitch received orders from St. Petersburg to retire.

The Paris Monitor announces on the 13 of June that the Turks made a tremendous sortie from Silistria, and attacked the Russians with great fury. Gen. Schetters received a wound rendering amputation of the left leg necessary.

Prince Gortschakoff received a contusion.

The Russians had sprung three mines before Silistria without damage, and were prepared to mount the expected breach when they were attacked on three sides by the Turks. A fearful slaughter ensued.

The Russians fled. The Turkish brigade from Shumla, succeeded in entering Silistria on the 13th.

The Russians were employed in buying the dead on the 14th and 15th.

Three Russian Generals were wounded. The garrison of Rutschuk went over to the Island of Mokau and destroyed all the Russian works there.

General Grotenhielm's division is said to have defeated two Turkish brigades with 6,000 cavalry and 40 guns.

The Turks have driven the Russians out of Turtukaj; which they occupied with a strong garrison.

General Ludes was amongst the wounded at Silistria.

It is said there is much disunion exists among the Russian Generals at head quarters: probably produced by the ill success.

Austria's summons, that Russia should evacuate the principalities, had caused the utmost irritation of St. Petersburg. The answer is under discussion. Prince Paskievitch, who was on the road to Jassy, was ordered to return and take Silistria at any cost.

We have advices from Turin to the 15th—Judge Gabby, who was charged with assassination of the Duke of Parma, who was mortally wounded with a poignard in the streets of Parma, on the 12th of June.

We have advices from Madrid to June the 15th. Gen. Orlando and Messina were arrested on arrested on charge of harboring Gen. O'Connell. Messina escaped. Orlando was sent to Galico; the despatches from Vienna state that the convention was concluded at Constantinople between Austria and the Porte relative of the Danubian principalities, the conditions being that Russia voluntarily retires.

Austrian troops will enter the principalities and form a defense between Russia and Turkey. If Russia refuses to retire, Austria will take such steps as appear necessary to insure her doing so.

The Russians were surprised and beaten by the Circassians at Barlet Pass.

The death of Mussa Pacha at Silistria; is confirmed.

The latest Telegraphic despatch states that at the conference at Trieschein it was decided that Prussia would not formally declare war against Russia, but would place a portion of her Prussian army under the orders of the Emperor of Austria.

Gen. Dumendary succeeded the chief command of the Russian forces on the Danube, in consequence of the wounds received by Gen. Ludes, who had his jaw carried away by a cannon ball.

A telegraphic despatch says the English fleet, numbering upwards of forty vessels was signaled off Constadt at Silistria.

Gordschakoff was severely wounded.—General Schilders had his leg shot off, and two other Generals were killed. The carnage among the Russians was dreadful, and they retired across the Danube, Pursuing their advantage, the Turks crossed an arm of the river, seized the Isle of Hope, and blew up the Russian siege works thereon. The Turks then erected temporary batteries on the Aulgarian bank of the river, before the north face of the fortress. The Russian Battalions, east and west of Silistria, immediately retreated in good order across the river, destroying their bridges.

This victory was gained entirely by the Turks.

The Russians at latest dates were in the vicinity of Kalarejeh, waiting reinforcements and orders.

The whole plan of operations at Bulgaria must now be altered.

It is surmised that Paskievitch will ordered the whole of the Russian force to fall back on Jassy.

Ere this the Russians probably have relinquished all positions on the left bank of the Danube excepting the forts.

At Korsova, Malechlin and Usakatscha apprehensions of the advance of the Balcan for the present is at an end.

Russian accounts for Bucharest admit the suspension of operations against Silistria, but say the siege has not been finally raised.

The Russians have evacuated Moguel and Sinabi.

Five thousand Turks have occupied Turtukaj.

It is reported, but doubted, that the Turkish garrison at Rutschuk had crossed to Osimgio, killed 400 Russians and taken 9 guns.

Admirals Dundas and Hamelen issued a circular announcing the close by blockade of the mouth of the Danube.

Most of the fleet of cruising off Sebastopol, and six or eight ships are at Varna.

The English ships Obin and Vulture had landed 150 men at Kalva.

Karlomy was attacked by the Russians and they were driven back to their ships with a loss of three officers, three seamen killed, two officers and fourteen seamen wounded, and twenty-five taken prisoners.

Admiral Napier sent four ships against Karlomy. All the Russian pilots were sent into the interior.

The British, under Admiral Plumridge have taken formal possession of Fornea, unopposed.

GREEK.—We have advices from Musseighi to June the 14th. The insurrection is totally extinct at Eperus, but the Turkish troops were marching to Uhesally, where the insurrectionists refuse to submit.

The U. S. ships Cumberland and Sata-nac were at Pieraus.

A report is current that Russia had again made overtures through Austria; but the terms are said to be the immediate retirement of the allies from Turkey, which can scarcely be regarded as true.

A rumor is again afloat in the English papers that the Czar will abdicate. He is also reported to be sick, and for that alleged reason did not attend to cabinet council on the 19th.

In case an evasive answer comes from Russia Austria will forward its final ultimatum, demanding a categorical answer within eight days.

It is stated that Napoleon intimated to the Austrian government that the French will interfere and suppress any revolutionary movements in Hungary or Italy while the Austrian troops were engaged against the Russians. Similar declarations are expected from England.

Since our last number was issued, there have been five deaths in Hickman and vicinity—four from cholera, and one from conjestive chills—four in town and one in the country. We have been unable to learn the names of any of them, but Mr. and Mrs. Watson. Of the three other deaths in town, (besides Watson) two were Englishmen, and one German, who were employed upon the streets. No other case of cholera reported as yet.

P. S.—We omitted to mention in the above, the death of two children—one the child of E. Case, and the other the child of a gentleman on the hill.

There was also one death, a German, a hand on the Railroad, seven miles from here—name and disease unknown.—Hickman (Ky.) Times, 4th inst.

A down easter has astonished some of the people of Gotham, as witness the following from the New York Evening Post:

At one of our hotels on Tuesday, a gentleman who evidently had not "been there" extensively, provided himself with a cigar from the office, and after smoking it half up, returned it, saying that "he had used it all he wanted to, and was going to take a walk, if the clerk heard anyone ask for a cigar, he could sell it if possible—if not, he would like to have it saved till his return!" Literal fact.

AN ACCIDENT MAINE LAW.—Among the ancient Germans, some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called Suevians, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory, because, said they, it enervates the mind, and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

Wanted, Immediately.—A young lad, of from 12 to 15 years of age, to learn the printing business. A boy of good moral character, of a sprightly intellect, who can come well recommended, can have a chance to obtain a good and lucrative trade.

DECIDEDLY IMPROVED.—The Louisville Courier, comes to us in a brand new dress, and looks as neat and nice as a young miss at her first party. Friend HALDEMAN, well deserves his wide spread popularity and wonderful success. The Courier has long been known to be one of the best newspapers in the West, and now since the reception of the copper-faced type, it is decidedly one of the best looking sheets in the Union.

A terrible fire broke out in Philadelphia on last Wednesday night. The fire originated in the National Theatre on Chestnut street, and consumed almost an entire block. The loss is estimated at near half a million dollars, and may exceed even that sum.

During the storm on last Saturday evening, the lightning struck and shivered a large oak tree, which stood in the field back of Mr. L. A. Spalding's residence.

The Albany Register says, the N. York express train, drawn by the new engine Chidell of the New York Central Railroad, ran from Syracuse to Rochester, a distance of 81 miles, in ninety-six minutes on Friday! This is the fastest running on record, for so great a distance.

There must have been some moving mediums aboard.

Garrett Smith, the Abolition member of Congress from New York, has resigned his seat in that body. The Nebraska William soured on his stomach, we presume.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—REPORTED DUE. A correspondent at Bardstown informs us that the M. E. Church in that place was struck by lightning on Saturday last, and considerably damaged.

The same correspondent says that it was rumored that a duel was fought in Washington county, between a gentleman of Danville and one of Bardstown. Neither were injured.—Lou Cour. 10th.

The second fair of the Crab Orchard Agricultural and Mechanical Association commences on the 29th of August next, and continues four days.

Dan Rice's Circus canvass was blown down on Saturday afternoon, during a storm. No one seriously hurt, though many were startled with the very sudden close of the performance.

Dan Emmet, one of Oaks' Minstrels, cut the throat of a waiter at Buffalo, on Sunday, because said waiter took his plate of peas! Luckily, Dan used a dull case-knife, or probably the severed jugular of the waiter would have been balanced by a hempen cravat around the wind-pipe of Daniel.

We understand that eleven hundred laborers are engaged upon the Fort Wayne and Southern Indiana Railroad, between Jeffersonville and Vernon, Ind. This looks like doing something. Cannot our hoosier neighbors, infuse a little life and energy into the foggies who have been building rail roads in Kentucky on paper.

Crops.—A correspondent, writing from Van Dyke's Mills, under date of July, says:

"Harvest is over in our country.—Wheat—only three-fourths of an average crop, owing to fly, rust, smut, &c."

Street preaching goes on in New York and Brooklyn every Sabbath undisturbed. The audience are dwindling to mere handfuls of men, who listen indifferently. These street preachers will tire of their vocation as soon as no more notoriety is to be gained.

The earnings of the Michigan Southern and Northern Railroad for June, will be $190,000 to 200,000 against $146,000 in June, 1853. The Cleveland and Toledo will be about 51,000 against $25,000.

WM. MATTINGLY, Bardstown, Ky.

DR. GEOHEGAN'S

EXTRACT OF HYDROPIPER.

For Dyspepsia, Scrofula, and all impurities of the blood.

Prepared by one of the Faculty.

THIS vegetable remedy which is now spreading to all parts of the country, is prepared by a graduate of one of the first Medical Schools in the West; a physician of high standing in his profession, and as much opposed to empiricism or quackery as any one can be, as is shown by the fact that the recipe is published, and accompanies each bottle of the medicine; thus exonerating it from the charge of being a nostrum.

It is prescribed by Physicians, as will be seen by reference to the Circular and by the accompanying certificate.

Unlike Sarsaparilla the Hydropiper is quick in its action. The first bottle often producing wonderful results, as in the case of the negro girl of Mrs. Simmons, of Louisville, who was relieved of Blindness in One Week!

In short, it has excited the wonder and admiration of all who have used it, and wherever known stands at the head of all remedies for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia, Scrofula, White Swelling, Menstrual Diseases or Negro Consumption, Scourvy, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Sore, Ulcers, and all Cutaneous or Skin Diseases, all female irregularities and obstructions, Mercurial Diseases, Secondary Syphilis, General Debility, and all disorders arising from impure blood and bad Habit of System.

For Female Complaints

this remedy stands unrivalled. Its effects are wonderful. It is a slight stimulant, and a powerful tonic and alterative.

As a fever of the complexion, in the cure of pimples and blotches, in producing a clear and beautiful skin, it is much more safe and sure remedy than all the cosmetics and lotions in existence. Try it and you will never regret it. Do not lose confidence if it should seem at first to increase the disease—the general effect of the medicine being to drive all impurities to the surface, and by that means out of the system.

HARDENSBURG, Ky., Oct. 6, 1851.

Dr. A. E. Geohegan—Dear Sir: I have examined your receipt for Compound Fluid Extract of Hydropiper, for the cure of Scrofula in all its forms, and other chronic affections, viz Rheumatism, Female Weakness, &c. Having prescribed, and watched its effects in many cases of the above diseases, and having always found it effectual, I most cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted as the best alternative and tonic I have ever used; altogether superior to Sarsaparilla, and any of its compounds.

A quaker gentleman conveying a British gentleman around to view the different objects of attraction in the city of Boston, brought him to Banker Hill. They stood looking at the splendid shaft, when the Yankee said—

"This is the place where Warren fell." "Ah," replied the Englishman, evidently not posted up in local matters, "did it hurt him much?"

The native looked at him with an expression of fourteen fourths of July in his countenance.

"Hurt him," exclaimed he, "he was killed, sir."

"Ah, he was, eh?" said the stranger, still eyeing the monument, and computing the height in his own mind, layer by layer. "Well, I should think he would have been to fall so far."

IRISH WR.—Please your lordship's honor and glory," said Tim, "I shot the hare accident."

"By accident," remarked Captain Charles Halloran.

"I was firing at a bush, and the beast ran across my aim, all on his own accord."

"The game keeper tells a different story," replied his lordship.

"Och! don't you put faith in what that man says," says Tim Ryan, "when he niver cares about speaking the truth, anyhow. He told me the other day your lordship was not so fit to fill the chair of justice as a jackass."

"Ay, ay," exclaimed Viscount Killskedery, "indeed! and what did you say?"

"Please your lordship, I said your lordship was."

A Bachelor friend of ours, passing up the street yesterday, picked up a thimble. He stood for a moment meditating on the probable owner, when pressing it to his lips, he said:

"Oh, that it were the fair lips of the wearer."

Just as he had finished, a big, fat, ugly, black wench, looked out of an upper window and said:

"Boss, j's please to frowd fat fumbel in de entry, I j's drap it!"

Our friend faints.

A SALEM HACK DRIVER on the Apocryphs.—Father Lamson and Abby Folson recently visited Salem. When they reached the depot, the hackmen crowded around the cars, as the venerable disciple with his helmsate stepped upon the platform, they were accosted on all sides.

"Hack, sir?"

"Hack, ma'am?"

"Hack, hack, hack!"

"No, my friends," mildly replied Abby, "we read that the apostles always traveled on foot."

"Blast 'em, yes!" ejaculated one of the whips, "and I believe they all travel this road—I haven't had a fare in a week."

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS.

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,

No. 54 Gold street, New York.

CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the

"FARMER'S GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NEWTON, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of plowing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of Agriculture.

This work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).

The Edinburgh Review (Whig).

The North British Review (Free-Church).

The Westminster Review (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, AFTER IT HAS BEEN ISSUED BY MESSRS. SCOTT & CO., so that subscribers to the reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the EARLIEST reading of these fascinating tales.

CABINET MAKING.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce to the citizens of Lebanon and Marion county that he still continues to manufacture on the most reasonable terms and in the most workmanlike manner, all articles usually kept in establishments of the kind; such as:

Fine, Marble-top, and common Bureaus, Fine and common Bedsteads, all sizes, Spring Mattresses, Tables, large and small, &c., &c.

All of which he will sell on as reasonable terms as they can be bought for in any town in Kentucky. Thankful for past favors, I would solicit, and hope to deserve by punctuality to business, a continuance of the patronage hitherto extended to me.

ELEVENTH YEAR

OF THE

LOUISVILLE

WEEKLY COURIER.

Acknowledged by general consent to be the Largest, Best and Cheapest Newspaper in the West.

In issuing the Eleventh Prospectus of the LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COURIER, we have great pleasure in announcing that Mr. Wm. D. Gallagher, Esq., has purchased an interest in the establishment, and he will hereafter be associated with us in its management. Mr. Gallagher is widely known as an able political and literary writer and a gentleman of cultivated taste, and being thoroughly Western in his education, habits and associations, and conversant with our Railroad and Manufacturing interests, we flatter ourselves that he will add largely to the value and interest of the Courier, and render it still more acceptable to its thousands of readers in every section of the great Mississippi Valley.

The Louisville Weekly Courier, Edited and Published by

W. D. GALLAGHER & W. N. HALDEMAN. Is one of the largest, handsomest and best papers in the Union, and for the quantity and quality of matter it contains and the great care taken in its preparation, it is beyond all question

The Cheapest Paper in the West!

As a NEWSPAPER, its character is well established. Our readers of many years will bear witness that for enterprise, energy and reliability, it has borne the palm from all its contemporaries in Kentucky. It is almost invariably ahead in the publication of important news. It procures news of interest from all quarters, both by telegraph and private express, up to the very moment of publication, and entirely regardless of expense.

As a Commercial Paper, the Courier stands without a rival in Louisville. The gentleman who has had charge of the Commercial Department for the last six years, and whose entire time is devoted to it, has no superior, and his reports may always be regarded as accurate and reliable.

As a Literary Paper, we intend that it shall hereafter occupy much higher ground than heretofore. The Tales and Novellelles we publish will alone be worth ten times the price of the paper.

The Miscellaneous and Agricultural Departments will meet with all necessary attention. They will be both full and useful.

In Politics, the Courier will continue firmly Whig; but while advocating Whig measures and Whig principles, we do not intend to do so to the exclusion of our usual variety. Our readers may rest assured that they will not be surfeited with politics through our columns.

Early in January we will commence the publication of the Original Stories: The Martyr of the Heart, by Miss MATTIE GREIFF; The Little Cripple and his Foster Mother, by ALICE STANLEY. A lady of Kentucky, whose literary productions have been greatly admired.

By adopting the Cash System, and strictly adhering to it, we are enabled to still further reduce the price of our paper, and will hereafter furnish it, large as it is, at the following

Another Scientific Wonder.

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S
PEPSIN,

7 E TRUE
DIGESTIVE FLUID.

GASTRIC JUICE!

Prepared from Rennet, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
"I DIGEST." Such is the true meaning of the word PEPsin. It is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a true Digestive Fluid, precise like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is Nature's own Remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no Alcohol, Bitters, Acids, or Nauseous Drugs. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a water cracker without acute distress. Beware of Drugged Imitations. Pepsin is not a Drug. Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Scientific Evidence.

The Scientific Evidence upon which this Remedy is based is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Call on the Agent and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, from Leibig's Animal Chemistry; Dr. Combe's Physiology of Digestion; Dr. Pereira on Food and Diet; Dr. John W. Draper of New York University; Prof. Dunglison's Physiology; Prof. Silliman, of Yale College; Dr. Carpenter's Physiology; &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United States.

Pepsin in Fluid and Powder.

DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPsin is prepared in powder and in Fluid Form—and in prescription vials for the use of Physicians. The powder will be sent by mail free of Postage, for one dollar sent to Dr. Houghton, Philadelphia.

OBSERVE THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia Pa. Copy-right and Trade mark secured.

Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medicine. Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

This Magazine has already reached a regular monthly issue of more than 100,000 copies; and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The Publishers have endeavored, by a well-directed use of the abundant resources at their command, to render it the most attractive and most useful Magazine for popular reading in the world; and the extent to which their efforts have been successful is indicated by the fact, that it has attained a greater circulation than any similar periodical ever issued.

Special efforts will be made to render it still more interesting and valuable during the present year. In addition to the usual ample and choice selections of Foreign and Domestic Literature, an increased amount of Original Matter, by the ablest American Writers, will be hereafter furnished. The number of Pictorial embellishments will be increased; still greater variety will be given to its literary contents; its Editorial and Miscellaneous departments will be still further enlarged and strengthened; and no labor or expense will be spared to render it in every way, and in all respects, still more worthy of the extraordinary favor with which it has been received.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a better quality, in a more elegant style, and at a cheaper rate, than any other publication.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail for three cents a number, or thirty-five cents a year postage, either of the Publishers, Booksellers, or Periodical Agents.

Each number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns each year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the month. The volumes commence with the numbers for June and December; but Subscriptions may commence with any number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers at three dollars a year or twenty-five cents a number. Numbers from the commencement can be supplied at any time.

COLUMBIAN AND GREAT WEST

PROGRAMME FOR 1851.

The continuation of our excellences of Western Romances and Tales.

Mr. Bennett's Forrest Rose will be followed by a domestic story of Western life, founded on facts, entitled

ELLA WINSTON.

Or, the Adventures of an Orphan Girl.

By WALTER WHITMORE, Esq.

Author of "Ainslie," the "Maid of the Inn," "Love and Retribution," and other popular tales.

Mr. Whitmore is an accomplished scholar, as well as a polished and energetic writer, and his "Ella Winston" is pronounced by good judges, to be equal if not superior to the best Western Novel ever written.

Ella Winston will be succeeded by GERALD LINCOLN; by Miss A. S. St. Clair, author of "Senora Inez," &c.
